Guardians are responsible for the conduct of the minor at events, and are accountable for the breaking of RACW rules and for any personal or property damage caused by said minor.

If you intend to leave the site, whether for a few minutes or for the entire event, and leave the minor child in the care of another person, you must fill out and sign an Assignment of Temporary Guardianship form. The RACW will require two (2) copies of this form to be filled out, one for club records and one to be kept by the temporary guardian. Note that photocopies are not acceptable; each form must have an original signature. This form allows the temporary guardian to act in the best interests of the minor child should the need arise, including any medical attention necessary due to injury or illness.

The RACW does not allow minor children aged 12 or 13 on the battlefield except in a non-combatant role. They may serve in a variety of ways, but any participation on the battlefield is subject to the approval of the Unit Commander and the Unit First Sergeant (or Ranking NCO). At no time are they allowed to be on the firing line, or ahead of the firing line.

The RACW does allow minor children aged 14 to 17 to participate as a combatant. However, they must have the approval of the Unit Commander and the Unit First Sergeant (or Ranking NCO).

Please read the RACW Policies and Procedures, Article VII, section 2, for complete information on participation of a minor child at RACW events and activities.

I, the undersigned, warrant that I am the parent or legal guardian of the minor child for whom this ASSUMPTION OF THE RISK, RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT applies, and further warrant and represent that I am empowered to execute this release on his or her behalf.
